GAME NOTES

LAST ACTION: The Cardinals got first-half goals from Amy Sibik and Bridgette Baggio — and the SMU defense did not allow a shot on goal — as they rolled to a 2-0 season-opening win over Wisconsin Lutheran Saturday. ... Martin Luther, meanwhile, heads into today's season-opener coming off a 4-13-1 season a year ago.

CARDINAL NOTES: Amy Sibik netted her first collegiate goal — in her first collegiate game — Saturday against Wisconsin Lutheran. ... Marianna Sanchez did not have to make a save in posting her second straight shutout (Sanchez stopped five shots in blanking Martin Luther in last year's season finale). ... The Cardinals outshot Wisconsin Lutheran 14-1. Eleven of SMU's 14 shots were on goal. ... With Saturday's win over Wisconsin Lutheran, the Cardinals have now won 19 straight nonconference games, dating back to a 1-0 loss to Simpson on Sept. 11, 2004. ... Saturday's win was also Chris Dembiec's first as SMU's head coach. ... Today's game is the home opener for SMU, which went 2-2-2 in its six home games a year ago. ...

KNIGHT NOTES: After going 3-10-1 in the UMAC a year ago, the Knights have picked to finish sixth in the UMAC preseason coaches poll. ... Martin Luther returns just six starters and eight letterwinners off last year's squad. ... Among the Knights' returners are honorable-mention All-UMAC sweeper Katelyn Peter and midfielder Sarah Janke, who finished third on the team in scoring a year ago with three goals, two assists and eight points. ... Martin Luther will be without its top two scorers — Jenni Mueller (6 G, 2 A, 14 Pts) and Elizabeth Greenlee (4 G, 2 A, 10 Pts). ... GK Amanda Koch, who played in 1,650 minutes of the Knights' 18 games a year ago, returns after posting a 4.15 GAA and a .656 save percentage in 2006.

LAST MEETING

Saint Mary's 6, Martin Luther 0

October 29, 2006

It was their last collegiate soccer game, and Saint Mary's University's Kelli Krmpotich and Jennifer Johnson made it one to remember.

Krmpotich posted her first career two-goal game, while Johnson netted the second goal of her three-year career in leading the Cardinals to a season-ending 6-0 nonconference win over Martin Luther.

After Emily Duffey got the Cardinals on the board in the third minute of the game, SMU's senior duo went to work. Krmpotich sandwiched her two goals around one by Johnson, as SMU pushed that advantage to 4-0 before the game was 11 minutes old.

Duffey added her second of the game to give the Cardinals a 5-0 halftime advantage, and Lisa Tlougan closed out the scoring with her team-leading ninth of the season midway through the second half.
